New Comprehensive Online Japan Guide & Booking Engine

JAPANiCAN is a new user-friendly travel website especially targeting visitors to Japan for online accommodation and sightseeing tours booking services with up-to-date and exclusive travel information about Japan.

With JAPANiCAN you are able to search immediate availability and book online an exclusive choice of various accommodations or/and tours. Not only you are able to choose a hotel or a package tour, but you can also access all possible events and attractions around your destination with the websites detailed and exclusive online travel information guide.

On the website's brilliant J-Explorer interactive map you can click on any area of Japan to see a weekly weather forecast and a full list of sightseeing highlights including each attractions opening times, entry fees and how to get there. www.japanican.com/japaninfo/

The website also features a wide range of video clips showing ex-pats doing various things in Japan. For example:

British ex-pat Kevin visiting Toei Uzumasa Movie Land in Kyoto and getting dressed as a ninja by professional movie make-up artists www.japan-in-motion.com/cr/cr_009.html

Canadian ex-pat Danielle having a geisha make-over
